RAYMOND, MISS. 39154

Foreward

We, the Eagle Staff, present to Hinds Junior College her annual. May all who cross her thresholds—either in actuality or in fancy by means of this book—leave her with a sense of peace.

Dedication

In all ages, men and women have delighted to pay tribute to characters who are outstanding—to individuals possessed of great talent, who have used that talent, not for the furtherance of selfish or sordid ends, but for the good of all mankind; whose contributions to society have made life richer, sweeter, and more meaningful because they live and have lived. For the past seven years Hinds Junior College has had at its head a man of this character; a man whose record of service to this institution has been synonymous with its glorious history and splendid achievements. It is therefore with profound pleasure that the staff respectfully dedicates this edition of THE EAGLE to the president of its alma mater,

MR. G. M. McLENDON

Appreciation

The staff extends its sincere and hearty appreciation to Miss Bess Lance, of the faculty, for her untiring and valuable assistance in the preparation of this edition of THE EAGLE. To her guiding hand goes much of the credit for whatever merit the volume may possess.

The President's Message

We present with solemn pride the record of Hinds Junior College for 1944-45.

Looking toward our future mission as a junior college, we have achieved much.

May those of our number who are so nobly representing our country in the war effort understand the progress we are making in the face of war difficulties.

Alma Mater

Hail, Alma Mater!

Hail to thee, maroon and white.

We now salute thee,

Guide us in the right.

We will love thee ever

For our hearts to thee belong

Always in our memory

Will be heard this song

Hinds! Oh Hinds!

May we ever loyal be.

Hinds! Oh Hinds!

Thou art dear to me!
